WORD

Read: Luke 16:9-13, Zechariah 4:6-10

*One day God isn't going to say: "well done good and famous servant or well done good and successful servant
He is going to say well done good and faithful servant"*

A real servant knows they are being used by God for His purposes, not seeking to use God for your own purposes.

Jesus taught that the key to greatness was to serve and to be faithful.

Jesus was not teaching you that you couldn't be great – He was teaching you how to be great.

If your heart isn't prepared to serve when you have a small opportunity you won't have what it takes when you are great.

Don't despise the day of small beginnings...

To "despise" means to undervalue / to look down upon anything God gives you, starting with stewardship, servant-hood & faithfulness in small things.

Read: Luke 19:11-27

We are stewards with responsibilities: " someone who manages property or other affairs for someone else "

(Mina= measure of money equal to 3 month's wages)

V13: King gives very specific instructions: " do Kingdom business `till I come!

King returned and held them to account: one steward increased to 10, another to 5.

King approved: " well done, good and faithful servant "

He expected them to be faithful & fruitful with all the money (stewardship) given to them.

Your faithfulness is demonstrated by your fruit: doing as much as possible with the time, talent, treasure God has given you.

OWN NOTES:

V20-21: third servant brought money back without multiplying it. He operated out of fear, insecurity and did nothing. His attitude was to play it safe and not lose anything. He did not take any risks
V22-24: King considered him a wicked servant..
Other seven servants did not even bring the mina back, they probably just spent it. They ate their seed and rebelled against their Master.

EVERYONE is saved to serve and give!

Don't just look to do great things, start to do little things great!

Don't be too big to do little things, or too little to do Big things!

The Great things of destiny spring forth out of the small / little things of daily faithfulness

Serve your family at home. Serve your Church. Serve in your workplace or at school. All of these are incredible opportunities to walk in your destiny. Do not wait for your 'big break' – your destiny is lived out in the everyday opportunities to serve and model Christ to the world.
