WORD

READ: Exodus 40:34-38 (NLT)

QUESTION: What does this verse mean for us today?

ANSWER: As the Israelites did – we need to follow when the glory of God is moving... We need to be a people who follows where the glory of God leads.

READ: Exodus 35:4, 5, 22, 29 (NLT) also look at the headings of Exodus 36-38

QUESTION: What was the process leading to God's glory settling on the tabernacle?

ANSWER:

1. The people brought their resources (Contributions).
 2. They constructed the tabernacle (Used their talents and skills to serve).
 3. Consecrated (sanctified/ cleansed) themselves and the tabernacle.
- ...Then only did the glory settle on the tabernacle.

“Our praise creates an anticipation that brings the weight (glory)... and anything can happen!” ~ Ps Russell Evans

QUESTION: Based on the process described above – do we have a part to play in God's glory manifesting?

ANSWER: Yes – it is when we contribute, serve and separate ourselves to God that His glory will manifest... We have the easy part and without it God is still God and His glory is still present – we just won't be aware of it.

OWN NOTES:

READ: Habakkuk 2:14 (NLT)

QUESTION: What does these verses mean?

ANSWER: Become aware of God's glory that already covers the earth.

“The reason the cloud of glory comes is when God is recognized in culture.” ~ Ps Russell Evans

READ: Haggai 2:6-9

QUESTION: Does this sound like a comfortable experience (God shaking the nations)? What about the glory is going to be greater?

ANSWER: No – but think about a plane breaking the sound barrier – just before it does, the pressure and the resistance is at its most... Only when you push through will you move faster than what is opposing you – by the time people hear the sound, you have long passed. The end result is glory – but the process isn't sitting around or stepping back from resistance, but pushing through it. The glory will be seen in magnitude, number, intensity, loudness, and importance.

READ: Hebrews 1:1-3

QUESTION: How does God show us His glory?

ANSWER: It is seen through Jesus Christ – if you know Him (not only know about Him) you'll know what glory looks like.
