SERMON TITLE: LET THE KING OF GLORY COME IN

DATE: 23 February 2020

WORD

In 2 Chronicles 29 is a great Old Testament Revival with lessons for today.
A Picture of Personal and Corporate Revival which flows out into the Nation.

Background of King Ahaz, father of King Hezekiah - Read 2 Chronicles 28:22-25

Read 2 Chronicles 29:3 & 17

Question: What was the first thing that King Hezekiah did when he began his reign?

Answer: He returned to the Temple of God, opened the doors and replaced them.
God was his 1st PRIORITY. He didn't put it off. His hunger for God exceeded his hunger for anything else.

Read 2 Chronicles 29:2 & 6-7

Question: What did King Hezekiah do differently than his father King Ahaz?

Answer: He did what was RIGHT before God. He followed the example of his spiritual father (David) and imitated him.

He starts setting the house in order ACCORDING TO THE WORD OF GOD (not his own ideas).

We are the house of God. Our bodies are the temple of the Holy Spirit.

1. DOORS

Read Revelation 3:20

Honesty opens the door for God.

Get the rubbish out that has accumulated because of neglect.

2. LAMP

Read John 8:12

Ministry of the Holy Spirit

No light = no illumination / no revelation / no instruction / no vision.

3. SHOWBREAD

Read John 6:35 & Luke 4:4

The Word of God.

4. INCENSE

Read Psalm 141:2

Prayer and Praise!

Spiritual activity in the House of God.

5. BURNT OFFERING

Read Romans 12:1 & 1 Peter 2:5

This was a freewill / voluntary offering of service.

When His power flows in your life you volunteer freely.

Read 2 Chronicles 29:28

Righteousness (right with God) + Peace + Joy is restored.

Praise and Worship starts to flow.

PEOPLE BEGIN TO COME IN!

When we get right with God others are brought out of captivity.

Read Psalm 51:10-13

The Good News is all of this happened SUDDENLY!

God loves you! He is not angry and judgemental towards His people.

Read 2 Chronicles 29:10

Here we have a man who SET HIS HEART to seek God.

A man with a different spirit.
